

Are you a young Jewish communal professional in the New York area looking to network with others in the field, and attend professional development opportunities? If so, become involved in AJP- the NY local chapter of Jewish Communal Service Association of North America (JCSA)!

AJP'S FOURTH ANNUAL HAPPY HOUR

Why: To kick off the programming year with some informal networking and fun!

For Whom: Any Jewish communal professional in the NY area

Where: The 79th Street Boat Basin Café
79th Street and the Hudson River (entrance is downstairs in Riverside Park)

When: Wednesday, September 10th 6:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m.

This event is FREE.
1 FREE drink for the first 100 people at the door! Free appetizers as well!

Please RSVP by September 1st at www.ajpnyc.org/rsvp

If you can't make this event but would like to be on our mailing list, please contact Diane Scherer at advancingjewishprosny@gmail.com

Thank you to www.JewishJobs.com for sponsoring this event.